THE UNITED NATIVE FRIENDSHIP CENTRE
Requires an
Indigenous Mental Health and Wellness Worker
Full Time Position - 35 hrs/week

The United Native Friendship Centre is seeking a highly motivated and community minded individual for the full-time position of Indigenous Mental Health and Wellness Worker. The qualified candidate will provide wholistic and culture-based supports and be responsive to the mental health and addictions of Urban Indigenous individuals and families.

QUALIFICATIONS
- Post-secondary education in Indigenous Studies and/or Social Services
- Certificate of Registration with Ontario College of Social Workers and Social Service Workers
- A minimum of two years-experience within a mental health and/or social services setting
- Strong knowledge and awareness of Indigenous culture and history with emphasis on the impact of trauma, family violence and community outreach
- Knowledge of the Indigenous Healing and Wellness Strategy, Ontario Mental Health Act and community health agencies
- Superior written and oral communication and group facilitation skills
- Excellent management and planning skills
- Ability to conduct peer counselling sessions and case management services to service users
- Must have excellent computer skills and knowledge of statistical data entry and reporting
- Must provide a satisfactory Vulnerable Sector Criminal Reference Check
- Must have valid driver’s license and access to a vehicle
- Must be able to work flexible hours
- Must possess First Aid and CPR certification

Please send cover letter, resume and three work related references to:
Personnel Selection Committee
United Native Friendship Centre
P.O. Box 752
Fort Frances, Ontario
P9A 3N1

Closing date: Friday, October 19, 2018, at 4:00 p.m.

A complete job description is available at the United Native Friendship Centre, 516 Portage Avenue, Fort Frances, and on our website, www.unfc.org