

The Wasa-Nabin Program offers supports to Aboriginal Youth between the ages of 12-18 years of age.

The program is intended to improve the life quality of youth through the delivery of cultural programs and services.

Special Note!!!

If you are a parent or guardian of a youth in the program and missed the parent meeting there is a survey and meeting with me that is needed for youth to continue in the program.

Program Objectives

Healthy Development	Youth in Care
Social Support	Violence Prevention
Institutional Interventions
