United Native Friendship Centre
Membership Application Form

Memberships are $5.00 per person (18 years and older) or $10.00 per family and are payable upon renewal or application. It is important that your membership is up to date in order for you to nominate, vote or stand for a position on the Board of Directors. All paid members 18 years and older are eligible for these privileges.

All memberships are annual and expire on March 31st. Please stop by the Centre at 516 Portage Avenue, Fort Frances to apply for or renew your membership.

UNFC Membership Criteria

Membership in the Friendship Centre is open to all persons who:

- are 18 years of age or older
- are a resident in Fort Frances, the Rainy River District and surrounding area
- agree to uphold the UNFC Code of Ethics
- have paid annual membership fee in full within at least 60 days of receiving notice it is due or at least 60 days prior to the annual general meeting
- support the aims and objectives of the Friendship Centre
- support the continued development of Anishinaabe culture and traditional ways
- agree to conduct themselves according to the policies and procedures of the Friendship Centre.

New members are always welcome!

NOTE: New membership applications must be accepted by the UNFC Board of Directors at their monthly meetings. You will be notified once your application has been accepted.
